PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL
Peabody, Massachusetts

Alma Mater

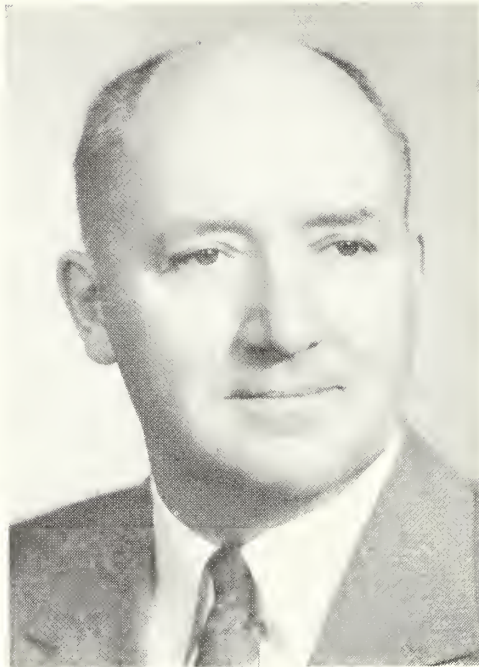

FOREWORD

Four years ago, seemingly very short years, we reached a milestone in our lives. At that time we were leaving the carefree days of grammar school and about to enter high school with its greater responsibilities and its more insistent demands on our time and our capabilities. With eager anticipation, yet somewhat timidly and fearfully, we registered that first day, wondering whether we would be equal to our new duties and our more difficult tasks. Then our fears vanished, for we met our teachers and found in them friends, friends ever eager to help us with our lessons and advise us in the various problems that confronted us. These teachers have guided us through these four happy years and to them we owe our heartfelt thanks.

Now as we approach another milestone in our lives, graduation from high school, we look back over these four years and reflect upon how much we have gained and how happy we have been. During these four fruitful years we have formed friendships which we hope will grow stronger as the years pass. We have pursued our studies diligently and have developed our minds to the end that in the days and the years that lie ahead we shall be able to solve the problems that will confront us. We have learned on the football gridiron, the baseball field and on other fields of sport the invaluable lesson of good sportsmanship. We have learned in our school organizations how to make friends and how to become socially adjusted.

That these fond memories will neither dim nor be forgotten entirely we have prepared this META, a record of the problems and difficulties, the joys and triumphs which we have shared during these past four years. May it be a pleasure for you to read it now, and may it always serve you well in recalling to mind the many happy memories of Peabody High School and the Class of 1954.

In Memoriam

Lois Ann Levine

As a lovely, blossoming flower entangled amidst a thicket of vines and weeds, as a pure white cloud astray in a storm-swept sky, as a gleaming drop of calm clear water alone in a troubled sea of swirling grey foam—so was Lois Ann as she entered into the pain and suffering which she bore so bravely. Pain and suffering, long months of agony, she shared with none. How little do we realize all that she taught us with her serene manner, the great strength that was hers, and her gentle laughter and her lovable nature.

In years to come perhaps we shall chance to recall various friends and classmates, to wonder what trade, profession, or walk of life they have entered. When we remember Lois, however, we shall smile softly and know that she has gone to God, that she is at peace. A blessed thought of such a wonderfully kind, sincere and beloved girl as was Lois Ann Levine.

In Memoriam
Carol Ann MacLean

On Monday, May 26, 1952, the news of the sudden death of Carol Ann MacLean came as a great shock to many relatives and friends. Her sad passing, the sorrow of her grief-stricken mother, who was also mourning the recent bereavement of her husband, will long be remembered by her classmates.

Carol's outstanding qualities of heart and mind were many. She was a conscientious girl, at all time considerate of the feelings of others, and she possessed an unassuming manner as well as a gentle simplicity.

To all of us who knew and loved her, Carol's death brought genuine sorrow. The memory of her sweet and humble manner will always remain in our hearts.

J. R. P., '54

IN APPRECIATION

We, the Class of 1954, would like here to express in a few simple but sincere words our appreciation and gratitude to the entire faculty of Peabody High School without whose help we could never have achieved our goal.

We are especially grateful to Mr. Arthur J. Barry, our principal, and to Mr. Timothy F. McCarthy, our vice-principal, for their invaluable guidance and advice. Our sincere thanks go also to Mr. Frederick R. McManus who has helped us in the preparation of our year book. To Mr. D. Edward Gorman, a true friend, we say simply "thanks" for his guidance as class adviser and for his direction of our Dramatic Guild and the plays we have produced during our years in high school.

Our deepest gratitude goes also to our home room teachers, Miss Marie F. Coyle, Mr. Arthur V. Johnson, Mr. Thomas J. Callahan, Mr. Edward T. Donahue and Mr. D. Edward Gorman who helped us in many ways during our senior year. To Miss Mary E. Luz, our class financial adviser, we owe a most sincere vote of thanks for the many hours she gave in assisting us in the keeping of our financial records, the records of our social successes during our last year in high school.

To Mrs. Ruth M. Conley and Mrs. Thomas J. Callahan we are grateful for their kindness and consideration on the many occasions when we found it necessary to consult them.

Each member of our faculty has made no small contribution to the development of our character, ability and personality. To them, one and all, we extend our heartfelt thanks for all they have done for us during these happy high school days.

DRAMATIC GUILD

Well, our four years of high school have finally come to an end. One of the chief activities during those four years has been the Dramatic Guild, under the guidance of its very likeable and capable adviser, Mr. D. Edward Gorman.

The Dramatic Guild has been in existence for fifteen years. During that time, the Guild has presented two plays annually, except for the war years when Mr. Gorman was in the service.

Since the Guild was reorganized when Mr. Gorman returned from the service, it has always presented two plays; one, a blood-curdling mystery in the fall, and the other, a light-hearted comedy in the spring. But this scholastic year of '53-'54 we departed from our usual pattern and presented two comedies, both of which met with great success.

We are especially grateful to Mr. D. Edward Gorman, who has unselfishly given his time to us. We only hope we can justify his confidence in us in the future.

CAST OF "MISTER CO-ED"

"MR. CO-ED"

One of the most enjoyable evenings we have spent during our four years at P.H.S. was the evening of December 11, 1953. The Dramatic Guild presented its first play of the year, a sparkling comedy entitled "Mr. Co-Ed." The play was under the efficient direction of our talented adviser, Mr. D. Edward Gorman.

Mr. Co-Ed was the story of a young man who wished to attend college. Miss Eustacia Hayworth, head of a girl's college, needed money. A very wealthy member of the alumnae had a grand-daughter, so everyone thought, and Miss Hayworth sent an invitation to the grand-daughter, who was really a grandson, to attend the college, hoping that she would receive a donation from the grandmother. What followed was really hilarious.

Elayne Kennedy, who was to play Ruby Nolan, was ill and unable to appear, but Janet Buckley, who had only two days notice, did a remarkable bit of acting in the role.

The entire cast put on a really wonderful performance.

Calling all cars!!! — Calling all cars!!!

Rush to Hughes residence disturbing the peace.

On May 21 at the P.H.S. auditorium, the Dramatic Guild presented its second play of the year which was a delightful comedy entitled "Life of the Party." This play was also under the direction of Mr. D. Edward Gorman.

The story of the play revolves around the Hughes family, who have recently moved into Butterfield where they make new friends and adjust themselves to new situations in a lively manner.

Mr. Hughes is baffled, yet intrigued by the actions of his family. And who wouldn't be with four children as various in manner and actions as Jean, the studious member of the group, Teddy, her funny and fancy-free brother, Mildred, her sophisticated coed sister, and Amy, who falls in love for the first time? Jean plays havoc with the family's plans when she arranges a party at her home and decides to be the life of the party. And what a party!

CIVICS CLUB OFFICERS

THE CIVICS CLUB

Upon entering Peabody High School for the first time, the Freshmen sense a feeling of satisfaction and wonderment. Here at last after eight years of elementary schooling, they are finally in High School. All around them are others, most of whom they have never seen before, sharing the same sensation. The problem is how to get to know one another.

This is where the Civics Club takes a hand. As most of the activities of our school are maintained and governed for and by the upperclassmen, the social life of the Freshmen is limited, that is, until they join the Civics Club, which, along with the members of Sophomore Class, is maintained and governed for and by them. In this active and most worthwhile organization they have their opportunity to express their views, elect their own representatives and to participate in all the many activities offered to them.

Each Civics Class elects its own officers, a President and a Treasurer, as does each Sophomore homeroom. These representatives assemble once a week to discuss plans for the Club's dances, bowling parties, skating trips and so many more pleasant activities that make their first two years happy ones. Along with these officers, there are elected each year by the entire club membership five head officers: a President, a Secretary and a Sophomore Treasurer, all of whom are Sophomores; and a Vice-President and Freshman Treasurer from the Freshman class.

We, as members of the Class of '54' can look back and remember all the wonderful times we enjoyed as members. Here we acquainted ourselves with the ways of the high school student, and here we first established the friendships that even time cannot dim or destroy.

The benefits of the organization are unlimited and even as Seniors we have the realization that the dues we paid and saved our first two years have gone a long way toward our Senior Class dues. We can also recall happily the annual outings that we took, along with the other school organizations, each June.

But probably the most worthwhile of all Civics Club activities are the five assemblies sponsored annually by the Civics Club. These assemblies are witnessed not only by the members, but by the entire student body. They always have proved and will continue to prove interesting, instructive and extremely enjoyable.

Much can be said for the members and for the club itself, but not hardly enough can be said for the man who makes all this possible. To Mr. James E. Arnold go the heartfelt thanks of all the students of P.H.S., past and present, and especially of the members of the graduating class of 1954; for it was under his capable direction, management and patient understanding that our days in the Civics Club have proved to be among our fondest memories of the past four years. We know that with him, the Civics Club will continue to experience even greater success in the years to come. Our Civics Club will always hold an extra special place in all our hearts, as will you, Mr. Arnold.

LEATHER CITY ORACLE - 1974

National News

DAKOS DENIES RED ACCUSATION—Washington, 1974. Secretary of State, MINAS J. DAKOS, in no uncertain terms denied today that he had ever branded left-wing SARKIS SARKISIAN as a Communist. DAKOS allegedly stated earlier this week that unofficial ambassador to the Near East SARKISIAN had been carrying on unquestionably communistic dealings with Trans-Jordan. When asked for comment, SARKISIAN said nothing except that "the election of the DAKOS machine was the people's mistake."

KLIBANSKY CLAIMS ROCKET OBSOLETE—Washington, 1974; In an exclusive interview with the Oracle, U. S. Navy Rocket Ace, WALTER KLIBANSKY, stated that not only are Navy rocket planes obsolete, but also that the "Jumbo" aircraft carriers used as rocket bases are inadequate and unsafe for use with high-powered aircraft. Navy construction head, DENNIS CONWAY, asserted that these claims are entirely without foundation or reason, but naval experts such as CHARLES PSZENNY are willing to back KLIBANSKY'S statement. At any rate, the matter will probably be looked into by a Congressional committee sometime in the next few months.

SALESMAN CHARGED ON TAX EVASION—Popular JIM HAIGHT, top-flight salesman for the booming INNIS ENTERPRISES INC., has been indicted on charges of income tax evasion. HAIGHT allegedly earned commissions averaging $115,000 per year which were not reported to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Many reliable sources of information have expressed the opinion that INNIS ENTERPRISES is merely a front for the notorious STARION SYNDICATE.

FIREWARDEN NAMED—Boston 1974. Appointment of district forester ROBERT HOULDEN of South Peabody as acting chief fire warden for the state was announced yesterday by ALAN GOODRIDGE, director of the state forests and parks, Department of Natural Resources.

CITY HALL—It was announced last night that JIM MURPHY will be the new City Solicitor and LORRAINE BURROWS will be secretary to the Mayor, taking the place of popular SANDRA GOLDBERG who has moved to California.

POWER SAVED. The well-known electrician, JAMES HUNT, made history last Saturday when he saved the power output of a large local electric light plant by putting a penny in the fuse box.

GIRL GANG BROKEN UP. MARJORIE LYNCH, crime reporter and BARBARA MAIHOS, policewoman, have recently apprehended a gang of small girls who raid parking lots to break windshields. These women should be highly praised for their work.

DABRIO OPENS PEABODY STORE. Former pro-football manager, DAVE DABRIO, will soon open a large, modern sporting goods store in Peabody Square. Dabrio says this will be the beginning of a large chain.

SPACE PORT OPENED. West Peabody 1974: PETE TSOUKALAS, famous T.V. comedian, and his secretary, ROSEMARY SANTORELLA, recently led opening ceremonies at the new space port here in West Peabody. Passengers on the first space-ship to the moon from Peabody are: NANCY SULLIVAN, MARIE RAUCCI, and JOANNE MARONEY. The oracle wishes them best of luck.

AT WORK AND AT PLAY

Local News

HOME FROM TOUR. Returning home from a country-wide tour are five old P.H.S. graduates, the Misses CAROL ZILINSKI, JULIA PAPPACOSTAS, CONNIE STANKIEWICZ, JOAN CULLEN, and PATRICIA PIERCE. All of these girls are private secretaries at a local firm.

HOSPITAL. Three Peabody girls are reported to be working at Salem Hospital. They are CAROL BLAKNEY and RUTH PINKNEY, employed as medical secretaries, and PATRICIA MICHAUD, recently appointed dietician.

EMERALD ROBBERY CASE CLEARED UP. TED RIMER, criminal lawyer, attorney for the defense of LORRAINE LaVOIE in the fabulous "Emerald Robbery" case, was commended by Judge JOSEPH SPINALE for his brilliant presentation of evidence. Chief witness, ALBERT HOSMAN, who was present at the scene of the crime, was called to testify by prosecuting attorney, JOAN GARDNER. ROBERT KANE, private eye, acting as personal body guard for JEAN KONDRACHOOK, maid in the beautiful mansion of Miss LaVoie, was seen in the courtroom, accompanied by his private secretary, JACKIE O'BRIEN. Among those serving on the jury were BARBARA MCCARTHY, DORIS O'BRIEN, and RUTH LETTENY, who rendered the culprit guilty of grand larceny. The criminal, Miss Maisy Mall, was escorted from the courtroom by policewoman, NANCY HULSMAN.

Social Shenanigans

The celebrated screen star, Miss JANET FLYNN, just arrived in Peabody, with her personal manager, GERALD DOHERTY. They made this stop for the purpose of visiting old friends. After this short vacation she is to make a personal appearance at the famous "Connors Club" proprietor of which is the well-known business man, RICHARD CONNORS.

Miss JUDITH PUTNAM, part owner of "Putnam Sisters Dairy", has just returned home from a month's stay in Florida. On her return she was pleasantly surprised with a homecoming party given to her by MARY SANTANI, who is head of the newly formed "Tanner City Operatic Society."

Miss ANN TRAINOR and MARY ANN ROBERTS, who are the owners of the "Crispy Chip Company", recently attended a chip convention at Providence, R. I. The convention lasted three days and they both had an enjoyable time.

Senator BRUCE DAVIDSON and his wife, the former JANUS WARING, will be honored on their 15th anniversary by a banquet given by Senator DAVIDSON'S private secretary, NICOLETTA KOUVARAS.

The president of the National Woman's Clubs of America, BETSY HOULDEN, has just announced plans to hold a National Convention at Miami, Florida. This convention is open to all presidents of the local clubs. Miss AUDREY REED is chairman of the reservations.

Romo Testimonial

ALMA HIGGINS, editor of the New York Sun, opened her beautiful Long Island home for a grand reception in honor of Dr. JACK ROMO, head physician at the New York Psychiatric Hospital. Immediately upon his arrival, the guest of honor, accompanied by head nurse, NANCY GIBBS, recognized, seated in a far corner, the Misses BARBARA and NANCY RIKKOLA, the famous "Toni Twins." Also present were retired golf champions JOE SAVY and KEN FEENEY, as well as MARY ALMEIDA the famous gossip columnist.

As the evening progressed, VALERIE MOWBRAY, renowned mistress of song, was introduced by master of ceremonies, JOHN DEMERS. The accompaniment was supplied by ROBERT PARKER and his Rhythm and Blues sextet.

Across the room we noticed GRACE THACHER, sketchbook in hand, doing a caricature of ADELE BERNSTEIN, who was seated with her fabulously wealthy husband, Tex Western, famous cattle rancher.

Coming toward us, we noticed PORTIA PANTAZOPOULOS and DOLORES PEMENTA chatting merrily about the recent discovery of oil in the backyard of ROBERT McCaffrey.

IRENE CHOUINARD, Miss Massachusetts of 1957, was seen dancing with JOHN JODRIE, owner of Peabody's own "Honest John's Used Car Lot."

MARIE BROPHY, recently appointed principal of the beautiful new High School, was seen accompanied by her old friend, JANET BUCKLEY, who sat with a slide rule in one hand and a glass of champagne in the other.

ARCHIE FARLEY, star player of the Boston Celtics, was greeted by a tremendous ovation as he came dribbling into the room.

Jet ace BOBBY MAGUIRE, and his lovely wife, the former MARY KAROLIDES, were unable to attend because of a previous engagement.

Fire Chief, JOSEPH GAGNON, arrived in a blaze of sirens and bells, and later announced the plans for his new combination fire house and pool hall.

CHARLES LaFRENIERE, winner of the 1974 Motorcycle Derby, and his mechanic, ERNIE AYLES, arrived, followed by their avid fan, ANITA DAVEKOS.

DAVID MATTHEWS proved to be the life of the party with his scintillating wit and sparkling good humor.

LITWIN WINS WEST PEABODY ROAD RACE, WHITWORTH TAKES PIT HONORS

West Peabody, 1974. In the grueling West Peabody classic today, auto ace BOB LITWIN drove his Litwin Lightning Special to a well-earned firstplace, finishing mere seconds ahead of the second place Holden Hornet. Early in the race, Litwin fought his way to a five lap lead only to be forced to make a 25 minute pit stop by a flaming fuel tank caused by highly overheated auxiliary disc brakes. It was not until the last lap that Litwin overtook BOB HOLDEN, his only serious threat.

A surprisingly good showing was made by the greatly outclassed Mercury Special entered by the CHARLIE NICKOLA Custom Shop. Credit for the unexpected third place finish goes to DON NELSON for his outstanding driving, and to BOB WHITWORTH whose expert pit management won him the gold cup award for the most efficient pit crew.

One car which was highly disappointing was the entry of the SULLAWAY Cadillac Co. which failed to finish even under the expert hand of driver MYLES MORAN.

The race was more than a match of men and machines; it was a proving ground for many new materials and engineering innovations. Many of the entries were virtual laboratories on wheels. This was evidenced by the attendance of ALBERT LAAKSO, president of the A. V. Laakso Chemical Research Corporation. Many products of this company, such as Laakso-lite and X300 were used in the cars. Also present was aerodynamicist JOHN FRONC.

A near tragedy occurred midway through the race when SHELDON WATKINS had a blowout while negotiating the sharp uphill corner at Lowell and Summit Streets and TED COMEAU plowed into him from behind. Miraculously, both drivers sustained no more than minor bruises.

ROUND-ABOUT WINS BIG RACE

At Suffolk Downs, last night, the greatest horse of the year, Round-About, won the mile and a half race by a length. His famous jockey, BOB BERTOLDI, brought him into the winner's circle with great pride. Owner EILEEN GILL is now on business in California making arrangements with the famous director-producer of motion pictures, SKIP McLAUGHLIN to make a film of Round-About's life.

SHEILA TO SWIM CHANNEL

Dover, 1974; Flash!! Miss SHEILA BISHOP has just arrived here in England, where she will attempt to swim the English Channel. Her companion on this trip is JANET GARZONE, who has read all the latest books on this feat, and who reports that Miss Bishop will have no trouble conquering the water.

PEABODYITE NAMED ZILCH TRUSTEE

Washington, D. C. Chief Administrator WILLIAM BIRMINGHAM of the Zilch Foundation for Undiscovered Athletes today announced that the post vacated by JIM KUTSUMITIS will soon be filled by popular CARL COOMBS. Kutsumitis was recently named Commisar of Entertainment for the forthcoming Zilch Convention. As soon as Coombs takes his seat in the Board of Trustees, nominations will be held for the Most Undiscovered Athlete of the Year. Rumor has it that little-known hockey genius LARRY O'KEEFE will be named.

NEW TRACK BUILT

West Peabody, which has grown immensely during the past ten years, has a new attraction. One of the largest race tracks in the state has just been completed by millionairess ELIZABETH PHOTIOU. It is expected that the new track will bring a wonderful increase in business to Peabody.

YANKEES WIN AGAIN

The New York Yankees trounced the Boston Red Sox 12 to 0. The "star" for the Yanks was ever-popular HARRY MANDRAGOURAS.

Miscellaneous News

RASMUSSEN-PAULINO SPLIT

Heiress IRENE PAULINO announced recently that her romance with harmonica-slinging folk singer, "RICOCHET RAY" RASMUSSEN is definitely over. MISS PAULINO claims that the hillbilly star's recent lack of attention to her has been caused by his interest in his recently acquired antique gun collection which he prizes greatly. The couple have been night-clubbing together for several years.

LOST AT SEA. Reported lost at sea is a tug boat, carrying the famous explorer of the sea "RED" IRWIN, who last explored the newly discovered islands in the Pacific. Among his party are PAT GATCHELL, PEGGY LEVA and GLORIA GILMOUR who are known the world over for the rare rock specimens they have found on their expeditions. When the boat was last heard from, it was heading toward Treasure Island.

RECORD POTATO. The largest potato ever found was grown on the one-hundred acre farm owned by PAT STELCHOOK. This farm is located in Potato Junction, Maine. Pat's manager, STANLEY KOSIDLAK, has cultivated all her potatoes for five years and has received recognition from all the farmers in Maine for his potato growing.

QUICK THINKING SAVES CHILD. JOAN GARDNER, a nurse at Lynn Hospital, was awarded a medal for her quick action in saving the life of a five year old child, who was nearly struck by an oncoming bus driven by RUSSELL JORDAN. One witness to the near tragedy, Miss JOYCE WISEMAN told police that the child ran into the street apparently to retrieve a baseball.

MISS VANDYKE HONORED. Miss SUZANNE VANDYKE was recently made Superintendent of Nurses at an impressive ceremony held at Beverly Hospital. Miss Van Dyke has been associated with the hospital for many years and is very well-liked by the staff and patients.

TALK ON GOSSIP — Last night on the new program, "Our Talk With Miss ANDERSON", there was a very interesting discussion between PAT and her guest, ANN McLAIN, the favorite columnist of the "Leather City Oracle" and SALLY MASON, private secretary to the famous lawyer, VICTOR PROKOPOVICH — you'll remember him in his famous case of the Missing Hide. The discussion was on "How to Prevent Gossip."

FARMERS' BALL

NEW FORMAT FOR MANNINEN SHOW — It has just been disclosed that radio and t.v. star, REINO MANNINEN, and his personal manager, DIMITRI WERENKO, plus their chorus line of 36 girls headed by HARRIET GIBLEY, MARIA ZOLOTAS, and BERTHA SYLVESTER, have taken off to a secluded island in the Pacific where they will create and rehearse a series of new routines for their Wednesday night show. The plane was piloted by the world famous jet pilot DICK CLOUTMAN assisted by co-pilot BOB ARDINI. The two lovely hostesses on the flight were the former JOAN PARKER and HARRIET FILLIS.

TODAY ON WPHS — TV — 3D — TRUDY PODHASKI interviews DR. T. DAVID SARGENT, D.A.H., lecturer, naturalist, theologist, and youth leader.

Music

"SPARE MAN" SMITH AT CLUB STUDSY — Now playing at the plush Club Studsy, recently opened by millionaire playboy BARRY ANASOULIS, is the renowned HAROLD "SPARE MAN" SMITH and his Sloppy Seven Sextet. It is not surprising that in the few days it has been open Club Studsy has already become a haven for those who thrill to the trumpet style of the great Smitty.

SILVA CHANGES PERSONNEL — It has been reported that small combo bandleader BOB "SIGGY" SILVA has enlisted the services of ALLAN PEARL and his "Sentimental Saxophone" and drummer FRANK ROBERTS, a military march expert. It is uncertain at this time whether Silva is enlarging his band to make it more versatile, or if he plans to change his style entirely. Jazz critic ALLAN

JUNG has expressed the sad thought that because of the change, Siggy's band will no longer be able to play the sparkling brand of jazz which has made it so popular.

Movies

THEATER — Coming soon is the new comedy hit of the stage "They're Back". It's opening at the Star Bright Theater next week. This sensational hit stars GERRY ROSA as a woman who found great pleasure in being away; JOAN DANFORTH, as the quiet one who is so happy to be back; and ELEANOR SELVO, the all-round girl who doesn't care where she is.

Ace Studios has just released a motion picture version of "Caricatures" with ELAYNE KENNEDY as the star vocalist. There are also several dance routines by JOAN LEGER. It should be a very enjoyable picture.

HERE AND THERE

CLASS DIARY

September 9, 1953—First Day of School. We, the class of 1954, in returning to P.H.S., for the completion of our high school education, find ourselves filled with nostalgic recollections of these past three years; of the serious moments and gay ones, of the mad impulses and the carefully planned activities, of the joys and disappointments, the howling successes and mild tragedies, the accomplishments and vain endeavors, the victories and defeats — all these seem to constitute this portion of our lives which we have spent here in preparation for our entrance into the waiting world. As we resume our studies, we look forward with great anticipation to all that this year, our final year at Peabody High School, has to offer.

September 15, 1953—Today marked the opening rehearsal of the band. Our P.H.S. band has been rejuvenated. Let us encourage our musically inclined students to build a band we can be really proud of!

September 18, 1953 — Nomination papers were being passed frantically around amid much confusion and wild excitement. The zealous enthusiasm on the part of the various candidates gave us the immediate impression that we were to have as class leaders this year an active and vigorous group of officers.

September 23, 1953 — A mere two weeks after our return to school we found that our hopes in the matter of efficient class officers seem to have materialized. We were happy to congratulate not only the officers themselves, but the class as well for electing what proved to be superb class leaders.

September 25, 1953 — Cheering Assembly. A great deal of zest and spirit was displayed by everyone and special notice was attracted by our peppy cheerleaders.

October 2, 1953 — TEACHERS CONVENTION — bless thir hearts! No school.

October 5, 1953 — Opening of fire prevention week. In observance of Fire Prevention Week, we were requested to refrain from smoking in classrooms, by the Fire Prevention Committee, ably supervised by Chief Burn. During the entire week all those who wished to indulge were asked to confine their activities to the smoker located on the 10th floor.

October 9, 1953 — G. E. Assembly. Our guest, Frank O'Keefe, an alumnus of Peabody High, presented an excellent program which held the attention of all. Mr. O'Keefe, representing the General Electric Company, performed a number of fascinating and truly ingenious illusions and experiments, all of which brought home to us the almost miraculous power of electricity, one of man's most useful servants.

October 14, 1953 — Assembly for Patch Test—now this won't hurt a bit. We were extremely pleased to discover that we are all perfect specimens of physical splendor. It really didn't hurt!

October 16, 1953 — Senior Barn Dance. Our auditorium was transformed into a colorful autumn scene. The keynote of the evening was informality. And, were we informal!!

October 19, 1953 — Bi-monthly examinations. For the conscientious students, bi-monthly days were merely regular school days. For some of us, however, they were in the true sense of the words, days of untold misery and agonizing mental torture. Nevertheless we managed to escape physical casualties and we'll wait with eager anticipation the fruits of our labor.

November 4, 1953 — Assembly—the movie, "Tale of Two Cities" was shown. This brought back to many of us such fond memories of English II. However, we will admit that watching the movie was a great deal more enjoyable than wading through the book.

November 6, 1953 — The Peabody-Salem Assembly was held at which time we heard a few words from Coach Bezemes and a very few from our co-captains Robert Kane, Dick Cloutman and Reino Manninen. The cheers were loud and energetic and great round of applause was given our own Tanners. Junior Jive — after our cheering assembly we found it necessary to calm down and prepare ourselves for an enjoyable evening at the annual Junior dance.

November 10, 1953 — A minute of Silence was observed on this day out of respect for the memory of our loved classmate Lois Levin who passed from our midst on Nov. 9.

November 13, 1953 — Civics Club Dance. The Freshmen and Sophomores of P.H.S. held a very successful dance regardless of the fact that it was Friday the 13th which disproves the theory that everything goes wrong on this fateful day. Those of us who are superstitious were forced to step back and make way for the fun loving underclassmen.

November 16, 1953 — Report Cards—oh, day of reckoning! Let's face it. They're a necessary evil. Congratulations to all who made the Honor Roll and above all to those who stayed there.

November 18, 1953 — Parents' Night—how timely that it should be held so shortly after the arrival of report cards. Throw open the doors! Make way for the seething throngs!

November 20, 1953 — Vocational School Dance. On this very merry evening we received a splendid opportunity to view our shop students, as they came up to the auditorium for air and a glimpse of our beautiful decorations. The boys did it again. A good time was had by all.

December 1, 1953 — Civics Club Assembly—let's face it. We of P.H.S. simply don't appreciate fine talent?

December 2, 1953 — Measurements for Caps and Gowns. It didn't seem possible that in such a few short months we would don our flowing robes and pass through these halls of ivy, bringing our high school days to a close.

December 4, 1953 — THE CHRISTMAS BALL. It was a stormy night early in the yuletide season, but within Peabody High School merriment prevailed. While admiring our cute queen, Irene Chouinard, attended by her very gracious court, we danced the evening away to the rhythmic music of Ben Clare's swinging orchestra.

December 11, 1953 — Dramatic Guild Play. The setting was an exclusive Eastern College for women, for the presentation of "Mr. Co-ed", a delightful comedy in three acts. The play was a howling success, and the age-old comic situation of a man in a woman's clothing provided a mirthful evening for all.

December 23, 1953 — School Christmas Assembly. We gathered in our auditorium for a fine program featuring our wonderful glee club and several excellent soloists. We then dispersed to enjoy the holidays and our Christmas vacation.

January 14, 1954 — Midyear examinations. As we fondly recall our midyear exams and the pleasant memories of those few delightful days, we dreamily sigh. "Finis."

Our senior year is half over, and it will not be long before we start counting the days until graduation. For many of us the glorious day will come all too quickly.

February 12, 1954 — Cupid's Ball. This was one of the most successful social events of the season. Dan Cupid himself was on hand to shoot many of his famous arrows, and tripping the light fantastic among a multitude of gala red hearts, we all enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

February 17, 1954 — Lincoln-Peabody-Washington Assembly. In observance of the birthdays of these great Americans we held an assembly in which tribute was paid to these men by several talented student speakers.

February 26, 1954 — Spanish Club Dance. Although the weather was quite inclement, the members of the Spanish Club held their dance, a most enjoyable one at that, for those of us who managed to swim up to P.H.S. and dry out in time for a bit of dancing.

March 18, 1954 — Civics Club Assembly. This assembly, I think we will all agree, was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Our guest, Mr. Pruth McFarlin thrilled us all with his tremendous voice and pleasing personality.

March 22, 1954 — Freshman Departmentals. While we began rehearsing our music for graduation, the scholars of the garret, occupied themselves with the transferring of their acquired knowledge onto those fateful examination papers.

April 12, 1954 — Woman's Club Assembly for Junior and Senior Girls. Mrs. Saccone, President of the Peabody Woman's Club, addressed the Junior and Senior girls concerning membership in the Junior Woman's Club and also about the annual scholarship awarded to a girl of the graduating class.

April 14, 1954 — Assembly for announcement of honor parts—oh, the suspense! The following members of our class, who have excelled in studies during these past four years, received honor parts: Valedictorian, Janet Buckley; Salutatorian, Mary Santuhani; First Speaker, Grace Thacher; Second Speaker, Alan Goodridge. The other students who received honors were: Mary Karolides, Elayne Kennedy, Robert Parker, and Audrey Reed. Congratulations go also to the following students who received honorable mention: Dolores Amaral, Sheila Bishop, Nancy Gibbs, Evelyn Gromko, Alma Higgins, Albert Laakso, Judy Putnam, Barbara Rikkola, Theodore Rimer, David Sargent, Sarkis Sarkisian, Anna Stepenuck.

April 22, 1954 — Civics Club Assembly. "The Romance of Words". Dr. Rowland M. Myers our guest, held our undivided attention as he related many humorous and interesting tales of the origin of many of the words in our English Language. We express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Arnold, the officers and members of the Civics Club for making possible these very enjoyable and educational assemblies.

April 29, 1954 — P.H.S. Revue. "Belles-a-Hoppin". Under the capable direction of Lou Roderique and Andy Quinn, we of the class of 1954 presented our revue. The talent displayed was excellent and despite those last minute chills we all enjoyed participating in our revue, however small a part we played.

May 17, 1954 — The last of the Civics Club assemblies was held this morning when the speaker was Mr. Hedley Hepworth who brought to life some of the immortal characters, through his readings, of Charles Dickens. To the Civics Club and to Mr. Arnold the entire student body is grateful for the interesting assemblies held this year.

May 17, 1954 — Monday! Pardon us! We were to have enjoyed a Civics Club Assembly. But the rains came and the dam gave way. Peabody center — the square — was inundated and school was out for two days. An unexpected holiday but at tremendous cost.

May 21, 1954 — Dramatic Guild Play "Life of the Party". A lively and clever play, intensely funny and highly entertaining. We wish to express our deepest thanks to Mr. D. Edward Gorman, our friend and mentor, to whom we are forever grateful for giving so freely of his time to the modeling of young actors and actresses and the furthering of the theater in Peabody High School.

May 28, 1954 — Our last high school Memorial Day assembly. It seemed most impressive to all.

June 3, 1954 — Our Banquet. Eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow you shall graduate!"

June 4, 1954 — Outing day! Many of us enjoyed of fun and frolic at Nantasket.

June 13, 1954 — Our Graduation. Can it be that this is the conclusion of our high school careers? This was answered definitely when our diplomas were handed to us and we marched on to commence our post-high school. For many of us P.H.S. was merely preparation for entrance into the higher halls of learning; but for other days here were the last we shall spend in formal education. May all our days be as happy as those spent here at P.H.S.

June 17, 1954 — Our Reception. As we bade farewell to our classmates, we resolved that although this was a night of parting, we would ever be bound by lasting memories to the class of 1954.

CLASS WILL

We, the undersigned members of the Class of 1954, of Peabody High School, City of Peabody, Essex County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being aforesworn of sound mind and body do, as our last will and testament, order the provisions herein inscribed to be this day proclaimed; thus making null and void all previous charters or promises and do order all said provisions to be carried out by said designated individuals.

Judy Putnam commits her piano tinkling talent to Pat Shoer.

Bob Holden bequeaths to Paul Ruelle his position of utility movie operator deluxe.

Sheila Bishop leaves her infectious laughter to Ann Cuddire.

The cast of Mr. Co-ed entrusts its opening night jitters to all future thespians.

Bill Birmingham leaves his financial worries to next year's unlucky treasurer-to-be.

Harriet Gibley wills her dancing slippers to her sister, Riva.

David Sargent and Alan Goodridge designate their store of ornithological knowledge to be placed at the disposal of any and all aspiring young naturalists.

Dave Matthews — leaves ! ! ! ! !

Nancy Rikkola entrusts her cheer-leading ability to Barbara DeVarrennes.

Luke McHugh assigns the wielding of his big (hockey) stick to Tom McNulty.

Mindy Dakos bequeaths the presidency of the senior class and all its honors (?) to next year's chief vote-getting, back-slapping, cigar-smoking politician.

Janus Waring commits her graceful figure skating to the memories of all those who watched her performances.

"Big John" Galaris leaves his infallible ability toirk teachers to the point of frustration to a wiser gatherer of discipline slips.

Janet Buckley wills her fantastic brain power to Ann nder.

Marie Brophy entrusts the preservation of her zany outlook on life to Ann Marie Durand.

Teddie Rimer leaves Mr. Gorman in peace!

"Studsie" Anasoulis commits his eternal wad of gum, willingly, to any chaw-happy hater of chewing tobacco.

Janet Flynn bequeaths her flashing, fascinating eyes to any Junior girl desirous of her potent, male-attracting weapons.

The Senior girls in the Glee Club will their melodious, harmonizing tones to all future songbirds.

Joe Gagnon entrusts his golden 19 ounce diamond encrusted poolstick to George Mosse.

Grace Thatcher commits her drawing ability to some artistically inclined Junior.

Bob Maguire entrusts his goal-tending ability to "Red-Light" Lippa.

Hash Smith bequeaths his role of 1st trumpet in the P.H.S. Orchestra to Vince Spinale.

Mary Karolides assigns her advanced case of writer's cramp to the Class of '55's secretary.

"Hot-Rod" Litwin leaves the driveway minus most of the hot-topping.

Art Farley bequeaths the captainship of the basketball team to Jimmy Grevelis.

Bob Ardini leaves the back-seat driving of the West Peabody stage coach to one of his country cousins in the Junior Class.

Elayne Kennedy wills her ability to chirp to the class of '55's songbird, Jane Doyle.

"Hacker" Savy bequeaths to Bert Remis his forever true chip shots.

Al Laakso leaves his impeccable choice of clothing to Al Gibley.

Carl Coombs entrusts his unending admiration of Miss Coyle to one of the lucky boys who will be in her next year's home-room.

In witness whereof, to the aforementioned and duly inscribed gifts, we, the class of 1954, being the testators, have set our hands and seal this 3rd day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

FOOTBALL

The beginning of our Senior year at P.H.S. marked the return of football to the Leo J. Buckley Stadium after a lapse of ten years. A colorful ceremony ushered in the dedication of our stadium which was followed by the opening game with Lawrence.

The Blue and White was capably coached by John James and led by Co-Captains Dick Cloutman, Bob Kane and Reino Manninen who were the only returning veterans from the previous season. Thus inexperience throughout the squad and a serious leg injury to Bob Kane greatly handicapped the Tanners chances for a successful season. Kane was lost for the entire season.

Despite some of the scores against Peabody, we were a tactically dangerous club having a splendid passer in T. Krisko and several good receivers including Co-Captain R. Manninen and Bobby Maguire. Our running attack built around George Smyrnios and Manninen who played both fullback and end. Co-Captain Dick Cloutman and Carl Coombs were the stalwarts in the forward line.

Members of the class of '54 who represented Peabody on the gridiron and deserve credit for their work were: Co-Captains Dick Cloutman, Bob Kane, and Reino Manninen, Jim Murphy, Bobby Maguire, Bill Rezendes, Vic Prokopovich and Carl Coombs.

BASKETBALL

Our basketball team of "54" completed its season with only two wins in fourteen decisions in the Essex County Hoop League. In several games a slight smile from "lady luck" and Peabody would have been on the winning side a little more often.

Coached by William Cronin in his second year, the Central Streeters were a high scoring unit, averaging nearly fifty-four points per game. Peabody's defense, however, was very weak as opposing team scores will show. The Tan-ners lacked height having only one six-footer in the start-ing five and the majority of the players were playing varsity ball for the first time.

Captain Art Farley and Jimmy Grevelis were the out-standing scorers, tallying 184 points each, in nineteen games.

Members of the Class of 1954 who represented us in basketball were Captain Art Farley, Dick Connors, Minas Dakos, Ken Feeney, Reino Manninen and "Skippy" McLaughlin.

HOCKEY SQUAD - 1953-1954

HOCKEY

This year's hockey team experienced its poorest season since the opening of the present North Shore League, winning only two games while dropping eight and playing a tie with arch-rival Salem.

Hard-hit by graduation which nearly consumed the entire team of the previous year, Coach Charlie Carlin's "54" club was left with only Gerry Doherty and Co-Captains, Luke McHugh and Bobby Holden to carry the burden. The rest of the team was composed of boys who saw little or no service at all last season.

Congratulations to Bob Maguire who saw service in the nets for the first time, making a creditable showing, particularly against a fine Swampscott team which reached the finals in the play-offs. Congratulations also to Luke McHugh who was selected on the North Shore Coaches All-Star Team, as well as to Gerry Doherty and Larry O'Keefe, top scorers for P.H.S.

Members of the 1954 class were Co-Captains Luke McHugh and Bobby Holden, Bob Ardini, Gerry Doherty, John Frone, Larry O'Keefe and Sheldon Sullaway.

Shaktman, R. Wooldridge, A. Farley Third row: D. Nelson N. Tracchia, H. Caron, D. Clothey, E. Bezzatti, L. Roumeliotis, F. Malik, D Broughton, Coach John Bezemes.

BASEBALL PREVUES

The '54 season has not too bright a look as only five veterans are returning, with the remaining positions being filled by new prospects who lack the vital experience that is necessary for a championship team.

Pitching remains the biggest question mark as the front-line hurlers, Lou Roumeliotis and Danny Sullivan are only Sophomores and probably one year away from being outstanding pitchers.

Captain Bob Maguire, veteran of four years, will be behind homeplate with Don Clothey as a replacement. The Tanners should be strong defensively, especially in the infield with Jerry Doherty, another four year man at the "hot corner", Nick Tracchia at shortstop, "Wink" Mosse at second base, and Art Farley at the initial sack. Doherty, Mosse and Farley are all returning starters from last year.

The starting outfield will probably have Don Nelson, Al Gibley and Bernie Shaktman in left, center and right field respectively. This trio plus Maguire is expected to provide most of the power at the plate.

The Johnny Bezemes coached crew has drawn tough opposition in their opening tilt, facing the Lynn English Bulldogs, defending champions of the county circuit.

Regardless of how the '54 team does in the won and lost column, next year's team will undoubtedly be one of the best along the North Shore as the many under-classmen gain experience this year.

Members of the graduating class include Capt. Bob Maguire, Gerry Doherty, Art Farley, "Skippy" McLaughlin and Don Nelson.

TRACK TEAM

TRACK

Since the season has just begun at the time of this writing, a forecast of the season must be made on previous reports and the present showing to date.

The return of football to the Leo Buckley Stadium also saw the reconditioning of the track which is now rated among the finest along the North Shore.

The outlook for a successful season is much brighter than in past seasons as many fine prospects are returning. The "Undermen of '54" are led by Co-Captains Bill Birmingham and Alvin Ennis, both veterans of three years, in the mile. George Smyrnios, winner of the 220 in the Gloucester invitation and Dick Connors, considered Peabody's fastest runner, can always be counted on for points.

Coach Tom McCarthy can also depend on Carl Coombs, Bruce Davidson, Bill Rezendes and many others to hold their own in competition with track stars of other schools.

Seniors making their last appearances for Peabody High are Co-Captains Bill Birmingham and Al Innis, Carl Coombs, Dick Connors, Bruce Davidson, Reinhold Rasmussen and Bill Rezendes.

THE GOLF OUTLOOK

This year's golf team, coached by Bob McCarthy will open its season against Swampscott at the Tedesco Golf Club Course, April 29.

Captained by Ken Feeney, the "Central Streeters" will undoubtedly be leading contenders for first place in the strong North Shore League. The squad is composed mainly of veterans which include Captain Ken Feeney, Ted Brocknick, Ken Johnson, Reino Manninen, Burt Remis and Joe Savy. Pete O'Shea and Dave Callahan will serve as reserves.

Seniors graduating in June include Ken Feeney, Reino Manninen and Joe Savy.

CHEERLEADERS

Oh! How time passes on so quickly. It only seems like yesterday that we were cheering on our new football field. How proud we were to be the first cheerleaders to organize the cheering section at our first home game. The excitement of the wonderful times we had during the past season is recalled as the tryouts for the new cheerleaders are in progress.

Thanks to the generosity of our Mayor, Phil Donnell, new uniforms were received and worn during the 1953 season.

Congratulations to the new cheerleaders. Wear your bright blue and white uniforms proudly, for you Peabody High School.

AFTERWORD

Now that our high school days have drawn to a close, the plans which we have made during the past four years will soon become realities. We are no longer carefree high school students but young men and women of the world. College careers and other forms of further formal education await some of the more fortunate members of our class, but in any case we shall have to shoulder countless responsibilities which will now confront us for the first time in our young lives.

We feel that our education at Peabody High School has in no small part prepared us to lead useful and satisfying lives. True, we have a great deal to learn, more than could ever be taught in any school, but we have received a foundation which is all-important. Much of this foundation has been gained, not from books, but from the indefinable benefits derived from four years of study and recreation with other people of our own age, people of all creeds and heritage.

In the years to come we shall meet new people, make new friends, and, to our regret, forget old friends; but, amid all changes, Peabody High School and its teachers, who did so much for us, will never be forgotten by us, the class of 1954.
